SIR:

In response to the Official Action mailed February 27, 2003, please amend this application as follows:

IN THE SPECIFICATION

Please amend the specification as follows:¹

Please replace the paragraph at page 1, lines 8-16, as follows:

A, Certain projectors and other such image display devices are capable of simultaneously displaying image signals from a number of different types of image providing devices. Such devices are capable of simultaneously displaying, for example, images played back by a video tape recorder or images taken with a video camera, superimposed over a graphic image generated by a personal computer. The superimposition of other images ("superimposed images" hereinafter) over a single image ("reference image" hereinafter) is termed "overlay."
